ABOUT WIDESCOPE

Silverback is a creative solutions group. We specialize in putting strategies in motion for customers with marketing and advertising, professional video production, animation & motion graphics, special events and live streaming services. With roots as a St. Louis video production company, we are staffed with experienced creative problem solvers.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Silverback's team of marketing specialists, producers, directors, designers, artists, editors, animators and engineers have been working together for over a decade. From this diverse pool of experience, we are able to craft unique solutions to help our customers communicate and connect with their audience. Having a knowledgeable partner is important. As a result, we work seamlessly together during every stage of a project.

- Our marketing specialists put strategies in motion to attract attention to brands.
- Our producers develop projects that enhance your message.
- Our artists create mind-blowing graphics and animation.
- Our photographers & videographers use latest gear to capture stunning images.
- Our mobile production unit takes the show on the road.
